

Sunday trip to Książ Castle

We'll be going there by train - it leaves at 11:14 from the central train station. We'll need tickets to Wałbrzych Miasto, which cost around 16PLN one way. I suggest we meet early to make sure we make it - so maybe around 10:30. Let's say the meeting point will be the main hall inside the station building, in the middle, just below the arrival-departure display.

It takes around one hour to get to Wałbrzych, then there's some walking through a park area to get from the station to the castle. We will have a stop in a resort town on the way.

The cost of entry is around 39PLN depending on which package we'll be getting.

There's no fixed plan on when we're getting back; there are several trains in the evening, one leaves at 18:43 (back in Wrocław at 19:46), the others at 19:27 (20:29), 20:14 (21:19), and 20:35 (21:43).
